Code of Conduct

This site and its contents are owned by the Department of Energy (DOE), National Nuclear Security Administration (NNSA). This site contains information that may be exempt from public release under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 U.S.C. 552). This site may also contain information protected under the Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552a). Prior to public release of any information, approval must be obtained from: (1) a manager having cognizance over a program identified in the document; (2) each individual identified on the document for his/her personal information; and (3) a FOIA officer/legal authority.

Site Rules of Behavior: Users of this site are held accountable for their actions and the following rules of behavior apply to all users.
Users of sensitive systems must be a US Citizen. Access by foreign nationals is prohibited.
Do not disclose your PIN to other individuals.
Do not use this site for storing/saving any classified (project/program) information.
Report any misuse or security related problems to your local DOE/NNSA cyber security office.
Consult with your local computer security manager for site restrictions.
Notify your POC and the NNSA help desk when access is no longer needed.
Deliver your RSA Authentication Device to your POC/Trusted Agent when no longer needed.
ALL users are subject to cyber security audits.

Security Awareness: Although unclassified, information obtained from the databases accessed through this system may be sensitive and requires computer security mechanisms sufficient to protect the information.

Printed Documents/Reports: Printed documents and reports obtained from this system may contain Official Use Only and/or Privacy Act Information (Title 10 CFR, part 1008) and will require additional protection pursuant to the requirements of that classification:

An appropriate security authority must formally review any printed document prior to release from your immediate control.

Access to printed documents are based on, and limited to, an official need-to-know.

Paper reports no longer needed should be destroyed in accordance with local site destruction procedures, or as classified waste.

Access to printed documents should be limited, controlled, and/or stored in a locked desk/cabinet/safe drawer or other area not directly visible.

Site Code of Conduct Acknowledgement: I understand and agree with the DOE cyber security policies, terms, stated conditions, and requirements for obtaining access outlined above. Further, I understand my cyber security responsibilities for protecting this information.
